

Camelback Captive Services, Inc.

PRESS RELEASE

Phoenix, AZ – July 28, 2010

Camelback Captive Services, Inc., an industry leader in captive insurance consulting and management services, is pleased to announce the appointment of Justin C. Mead as Executive Vice President. Justin will be responsible for business development of the firm's captive management services.

Mr. Mead has been in the captive insurance industry since 2005, most recently in an executive capacity with Lionheart Insurance Group. Mr. Mead's background includes extensive work in the risk finance field with Lionheart Insurance Group, LaSalle Bank N.A. and Wells Fargo Bank. Mr. Mead will oversee Camelback's newly formed Chicago office.

"Justin brings a great deal of experience and a creative mind which will be extremely valuable in supporting our clients and expanding our business into new areas", said Richard P. Marshall, founder and President of Camelback. "We continue to see strong interest in captive insurance solutions and believe the addition of Justin positions us well for continued future growth," he added.

"I'm very excited to join Camelback and assist them in bringing their unique captive management approach to more captive owners," said Mr. Mead. "It's a great opportunity to work with Dick and his staff," Mead added.
